SUPERINTENDENT REPORT:

Superintendent Smith stated a mandate was sent from AHSAA regarding basketball season encouraging schools to reduce the number of spectators, maintain social distance, require masks upon entry and make public announcements throughout the game.

October is National Principals Month, Mr. Smith acknowledged the three OCS principals and commended their work and leadership, especially during this school year.

We continue to monitor the COVID situation daily. Several schools within the state have closed for two weeks. We will continue to follow the present plan and schedule for students.

Thanksgiving holidays are Nov 25, 26, and 27. All students are scheduled for Remote Learning on November 23 and 24. Mr. Smith would like the teachers/employees to work remote on November 23 and 24 as well. This will allow Lakeshore Environmental to professionally clean and sanitize our campus. There was no opposition from the Board members.
